Worship with us this Sunday, May 24

eNews leading up to Sunday, May 24
Worship with us this Sunday at 10am! Join us here at PUCC or not YouTube Live (@parkwayuccstl)… or participate any time later on YouTube.

Join us this Sunday in person or online for Pentecost! It's the day the long-promised and very powerful Spirit was given to the disciples and others. We will hear the story, sing the songs and make room for the Spirit!
Please consider wearing some/all RED as symbol of the Holy Spirit!
Our scripture passages are the Story of Pentecost from Acts 2:1-21 and 1Corinthians 12:3b-13 where we are reminded that the Spirit is a gift to all of us – diverse though we are – and we belong to one another and need one another like parts of the body!
What do we sense the Spirit saying to the church today? How might what PUCC hears be unique from other settings? In what ways are we part of the body of Christ on Pentecost?

Worship bulletin here!

Songs include: Like the Murmur of the Dove's Song; On Pentecost They Gathered; Spirit of the Living God; You Gotta Shout When the Spirit Says 'Shout'; Spirit of God; Pentecost Doxology; Spirit of Gentleness

Choir and Music Ministry Invitation
Sunday, May 24 | 9am | Choir Loft in the Sanctuary
We are excited to share that a new chapter in music ministry has begun at Parkway UCC! Aria, our Music Director, warmly invites current singers, former choir members, and anyone who has ever been curious about singing to join us!
This invitation is extended to instrumentalists, too! Whether you have years of experience or simply a desire to explore your voice, you are welcome! This is an open invitation to help shape a renewed vision for our music ministry as we discover new possibilities together.
All are welcome - come as you are and add your voice to something new as possibilities organically grow. Questions? aria@parkwayucc.org

Prayer Partner Before and After Worship this Sunday
PUCCer Kari Borgmann is available this Sunday in the front left corner of the sanctuary before and after worship to pray confidentially with individuals. She is a mother, has taken extensive classes at Eden Theological Seminary, and has had years of training in counseling and brings that love into pastoral care. She will call on the presence of God and help create a safe spiritual space with you. Kari will listen to you as you tell her a bit about your prayer request. She will offer an affirmative prayer out loud, reminding you of your inner strengths rather than ask God for a specific outcome. She will pray that you are guided by God's infinite love, presence and support… and that any joy or gratitude will be multiplied, and any fear or doubt will be transformed into peace and confidence.

WISE Team Inquiry: A United Church of Christ Ministry Mental Health
We hope you had a positive experience of worship, fellowship and our Speaker Series last Sunday on our First Annual Mental Health Sunday. Our church is looking at the possibility of becoming a WISE church as set forth by our United Church of Christ.
(WISE = Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, Engaged)
We are at the start of this journey and are hopeful it will be a blessed one. If you are interested in being considered for the WISE Team that would play a formative role in this exploration and study, please click here. Thank you! Questions? Please contact kevin@parkwayucc.org

Interfaith Partnership of Greater St. Louis

Interfaith Partnership STL Cabinet Statement on our desire for safe spaces, compassion and belonging
The Cabinet of Interfaith Partnership of Greater St. Louis stands in solidarity with the Muslim community after the violent act that targeted the Islamic Center of San Diego and left 5 people dead on May 18, 2026.

Violent attacks and expressions of hate against an Islamic Center and Mosque have no place anywhere in our societies and communities. The Cabinet members, as people of conscience, are committed to denouncing Islamophobia, antisemitism, bigotry and any other form of hate aimed at religious groups or people in our communities. We recognize that this tragic event in San Diego contributes to the painful reality of uncertainty as well as the safety concerns already present in our religious communities and neighborhoods here in St. Louis.

To our Muslim friends and community, we reiterate our support and care. You are not alone; we stand and walk with you. Your presence with and for us enriches our civic life and interfaith relations.

We pray for a day when all our places of faith, prayer and community are safe spaces, respected as beacons of hope that contribute to the common good. We believe that through our interfaith relationships and expressions of compassion, we can find resilience, allowing us to flourish together as neighbors and friends.

The Interfaith Partnership represents 30 religious communities of faith and conscience within the St. Louis area.

Bread for the World Offering of Letters
Sunday, May 31 | 9-11am | Gathering Space

We will hold our annual Bread for the World Offering of Letters event during the Sunday, 5/31 Jesus Has Left the Building (JHLTB) service project event. The Offering of Letters is our opportunity to join people of faith nationwide in a campaign to hand-write thousands of letters to members of Congress about nutrition programs in the U.S. and around the world. When we combine our stacks of letters from PUCC with other Missouri churches, our voices are amplified! There will be many ways to provide hands-on service for the JHLTB Sunday, so we encourage you to write your letters in one of the 5 following ways. Then, we can include your letters in our personal delivery to congressional offices!

1. Write Before Sunday: Hand-write letters from home and bring them to church on 5/31
2. Come early to write: Come to church early on 5/31 and write letters at the tables in the gathering space before worship and service projects
3. Write during the service: Write reasons why you care about fighting hunger on a pre-printed letter template provided at church and submit an online letter via smartphone during the offertory
4. Write for JHLTB project : Write after the service at the tables in the gathering space as your participation in JHLTB service
5. Write after Sunday: Bring in your handwritten letters on Sunday, June 7 and put them in the basket in the gathering space Online letters can be submitted through here.

· 4 jars (approximately 28 oz) of pre-made marinara sauce (Plain)
· 4 cans (approximately 24 oz) of crushed tomatoes

Mike will recount his adventures in each unit, the rigorous training and selection process, their respective missions, and the leadership skills he learned throughout his extraordinary career. THIS IS WHAT DEMOCRACY LOOKS LIKE
STAND UP FIGHT

May ONA News
Missouri's 2026 General Assembly is over and, once again, the quote from 2 Timothy 4:7 is in my mind ("I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.") It's been a hard legislative session for LGBTQ+ Missourians and advocates but this year we can celebrate. Earlier this month, PROMO Missouri announced that all 58 anti-LGBTQ+ bills were successfully defeated by their legislative team, volunteers, and allies.

Shira, PROMO's public policy director, said Republican legislators "threw everything they had us" and that every time PROMO reached out to its supporters during the session, thousands showed up. This included a rally in January at the Capitol that included participants from the LGBTQ+ Faith Alliance, an interfaith ministry at Parkway UCC.

Please take a moment and send a hand-written thank you note to PROMO to congratulate them for their hard work to protect the rights of LGBTQ+ Missourians and to make our state a more equitable place. Address your cards to: Katy Erker-Lynch (executive director), PROMO Missouri, 2200 Gravois Ave., suite #201, St. Louis 63104. Let Katy and their team know you are from Parkway UCC.

A few weeks ago, PROMO and the LGBTQ+ Faith Alliance held a community meeting to talk strategy for the summer as the campaign to defeat the new Amendment 3 ramps up. The referendum, which strips back reproductive choice and gender-affirming care for Missouri youth, may appear on the ballot as early as August. Find ways to get involved with PROMO by visiting their website here, and sign up to pledge your support of trans Missourians, phone bank, or deep canvass. Abortion Action Missouri also is working to defeat Amendment 3; follow their work or volunteer here.

These are difficult times in our state and country for LGBTQIA2S+ — especially for transgender — citizens. Maybe you've said to yourself, "I wish there was something I could do to help." Well, there is something. Well now you can! Check out how our church is involved in supporting LGBTQIA2S+ people. For more information, contact Deb Reinhardt deborahreinhardt@att.net

The Third Coat by PUCCer Molly Grisham

Can we agree that there is simply no good time to paint the inside of a house? I recently had a conversation with myself that sounded something like, "Look, self, there is no ideal time for this, but the house really needs to be painted. Let's just do it now, and you'll love it when it is done."
I can be very persuasive.
Soon after that conversation, I hired a painter who, after looking at my home, said I needed to buy five gallons of paint. Five gallons. That felt like a major commitment.
While at my favorite hardware store, I began considering all the options. Rows and rows of every shade possible. I knew what I wanted, but suddenly this decision felt very difficult. I selected five color swatches and stood there for 10 minutes, just staring at them. They were similar, but also different.
I noticed a woman behind me waiting to pick up paint. I approached her and said something like, "Can I ask you a question? Which one of these looks best to you?"
She started laughing and said, "I'm sorry that I am laughing, but I said those exact words to another woman in this store last night!" She continued, "She told me to take the swatches home, tape them to a wall, live with them for 24 hours, and then make my decision."
I smiled, nodded, and said, "That's great advice. I'm going to do the same thing."
24 hours later, I returned to the store to pick up five gallons of paint. Peasant Bread was my color of choice. I wanted something in the tan family–that looked more like sand–but not yellow. I felt good about my selection.
On day one, the painter finished the first coat, and honestly, I was disappointed. It looked very tan to me. Not "sand." Just very, very tan...

A one-minute primer for Pentecost
https://youtu.be/IeiSyGPY9rg?si=p5QgdN_jBCMGUhra

Jokes

Wind theme for Pentecost:
Dropped $10 and the wind caught it, I had to chase it down the road... I never caught it but I had a good run for my money.
The President invites the Pope to lunch on a boat. The Pope accepted and during lunch, a puff of wind blew the pontiff's hat off, right into the water. It floated off about 50 feet, then the wind died down and it just floated in place. The crew and the Secret Service were scrambling to launch a boat to go get it, when the President waved them off, saying, "Never mind. I'll get it."

Then the President climbed over the side of the yacht, walked on the water to the hat, picked it up, walked back on the water, climbed into the boat, and handed the Pope his hat.

The crew was speechless. The security team and the Pope's entourage were speechless. No one knew what to say, not even the Pope.

But that afternoon, all the news outlets reported: "PRESIDENT CAN'T SWIM"

I went to a miniature wind turbine exhibition yesterday. Got to say... not a big fan.
