We still need 110 Gravy Packets (Turkey, chicken, etc). and have met the goal for the can openers. Thanks for your support!

Worship with us this Sunday, November 8

Join us this Sunday for worship at 10am in the sanctuary or on YouTube Live (https://www.youtube.com/@ParkwayUCCStL) anytime.

Our scriptures are Psalm 78:1-7 (reminder that faith is to be shared across generations… stories of God's love, faithfulness, justice, and transforming presence) and Matthew 25:1-13 (the parable of the bridesmaids – some prepared and some not so much!). We will ponder being prepared and the differences of living from a place of scarcity or abundance. We will experience the oil of blessing.

Worship bulletin: Link

Our songs include: Seek Ye First; O God, Our Help in Ages Past; Dream God's Dream; Jesus' Hands Were Kind Hands; Surely the Presence; Here Are Our Hearts; O For A World

Choir! All ages welcome! Questions? Contact aria@parkwayucc.org

Prayer Partner Before and After Worship this Sunday
PUCCer Emma Zyriek-Rhodes is available this Sunday in the front left corner of the sanctuary before and after worship to pray confidentially with individuals. She is a mother, seminary graduate, nonprofit leader, recent Saint Louis transplant, and chaplain-in-training at Barnes Jewish Hospital. She will call on the presence of God and help create a safe spiritual space with you. She will listen to you as you tell her a bit about your prayer request. Emma will offer an affirmative prayer out loud, reminding you of your inner strengths rather than ask God for a specific outcome. She will pray that you are guided by God's infinite love, presence and support… and that any joy or gratitude will be multiplied, and any fear or doubt will be transformed into peace and confidence.

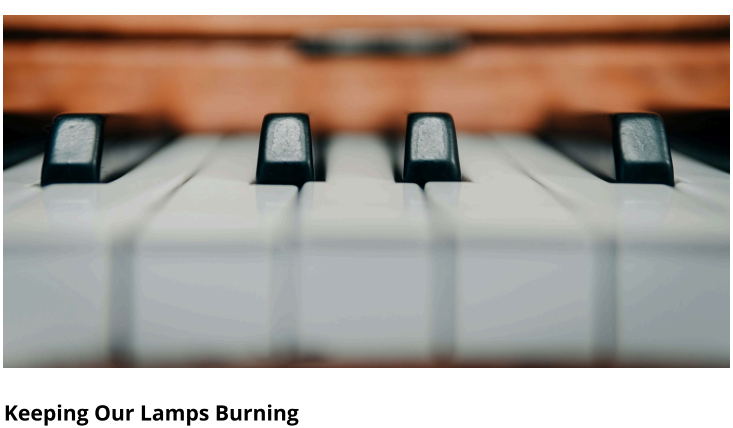
Notes from Aria



Keeping Our Lamps Burning
As autumn deepens and daylight shortens, we are reminded of something our ancestors understood well: preparing for winter meant more than gathering food and firewood. Ancient harvest observances throughout the world, including Samhain, marked a time of gathering, sharing and gratitude, and preparation for the long darkness ahead. Communities understood the importance of having and sharing to sustain one another through the almost untenable colder months.
In this week's Gospel, the parable of the ten virgins (Matthew 25:1–13), we encounter another image of preparation: lamps filled with oil, ready to illuminate the darkness. It invites us to consider a deeply personal question: What keeps the lamp of your spirit burning?
Perhaps the oil in our lamps is replenished through prayer, friendship, service, beauty, and the simple experience of belonging. I believe music, particularly singing together, can be a powerful source of this spiritual nourishment. When we gather in song, we offer something of ourselves while receiving something from one another. Our individual voices become part of something greater, and in the process, we discover that our own light has grown brighter and helps nourish others!
As we continue this season of stewardship, perhaps we might consider that one of our greatest gifts is simply our presence during this time of lengthening darkness. This approaching Advent and Christmas, I invite you to share that gift by joining the Parkway Choir for our December 13 Service of Lessons and Carols and Christmas Eve worship. With rehearsals on Thursdays from 7:00–8:30 p.m., this is a limited commitment with the potential for lasting joy and light.
Come replenish your lamp and help us carry a little more light into the world this so in need this winter.

How have our faiths shaped America?
Join Intertwine Interfaith at Parkway United Church of Christ for an evening of conversation, learning, and community as we explore the role that different faith traditions have played in shaping America. The evening will include Havdalah (Jewish candle ceremony that closes the Sabbath), a discussion on Faith 250 and faith contributions to America, perspectives from different faith communities, and small-group table conversations. We'll also enjoy refreshments together during the discussions. People of all faiths and backgrounds are warmly welcome. We hope this evening creates an opportunity to learn from one another, build friendships, and celebrate the diverse faith communities that are part of the American story.

Our own Mark Sableman, Carol Russell and John Russell will share some UCC thoughts on this subject!

Know What to Do in a Medical Emergency
Sunday December 6th | 12PM - 2:30PM | Heritage Room
Provided by: West County EMS
Link: SIGN UP Here by Nov 20th
Limit: 16 | 6 spots remaining!

A Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) plus Automated External Defibrillator (AED) plus Stop the Bleed (STB) plus First Aid certification class presented by West County EMS will be onsite in Parkway's Fellowship Hall on Sunday December 6th from noon to 2:30. Emergency procedures are included for both adult and pediatric victims. The certification is good for two years (This class was last held at Parkway in 2024). The class is for participants in the Parkway and Marthoma congregations. You must register by name and home address in advance. Class size is limited to 16 participants.

Why is this important? There is a chance that victims of choking, heart failure, or serious external bleeding may die before an ambulance arrives. The real first responders are the people in the building that know what to do. Parkway UCC will cover the cost of the class. Register in One Church or by contacting Richard Race at racerichardg@gmail.com.

Cost for class is $55/participant. There is no charge for residents of West County EMS Fire Protection District. Thus home address is required in the registration. Parkway paid for the class in 2024 so I hope that Parkway will pay again. The class is open to participants of the Parkway UCC and the Marthoma congregation attendees.

If you have questions or want assistance signinig up please contact Richard Race at racerichardg@gmail.com

From time to time, we come upon a book that we would like as many PUCCers as possible to read. Blessed Minds: Breaking the Silence About Neurodiversity is such a book.

Good Reads invites us to explore ~
"Many churches are unintentionally exclusive toward people whose brains work differently. Blessed Minds: Breaking the Silence About Neurodiversity helps churches embrace the gifts of neurodiversity and become a place of belonging for all. In this book, we will learn
- What neurodiversity is (and isn't)
- How to create neuroinclusive worship
- Practical tips for welcoming neurodivergent families.
- Theological insights into neurodiversity as part of God's good creation."

Look for a print or audio copy through your favorite provider. We have ordered a few copies for anyone who needs one as we don't want purchasing the book to be a stumbling block. Hope you will join us for this All Church Read.

SERIES

Sunday, November 8 | 11:15am-12:15pm | Heritage Room
"Kent and Jameson's Excellent Adventure," by the Tallyn Boys.
A Boundary Waters canoe trip is a back country camping adventure centered on canoe travel through a vast, roadless network of glacial lakes and pine forests, along the U.S.-Canada border. You pack all your food, shelter, and clothing and then you paddle across lakes. When the land blocks your path, you "portage"- meaning you carry the canoe and all your heavy gear across dirt, rock, or mud trails to reach the next lake. There are no roads, motorized vehicles, cell towers, or electricity. It forces you to unplug from modern technology and align your schedule with the rising and setting of the sun. The region boasts some of the cleanest, most pristine water in America. It is also designated as a dark sky sanctuary, making it a premier destination for stargazing and viewing the Northern Lights. Kent, his son Jameson and his daughter Sara, along with her husband Nick completed their boundary waters adventure last summer and now will share their story of a lifetime, a family adventure.

Sunday, November 15 | 11:15am-12:15pm | Heritage Room
"Building Brain Healthy Habits," a Presentation of the Alzheimer's Association, St. Louis Chapter
Research shows there are everyday habits you can build today to help protect your memory and thinking as you get older- even reducing your risk of cognitive decline and possibly dementia. Join us to learn about healthy habits for your brain; the brain-heart connection; why brain health is important at all ages, and how to build your personalized action plan for brain-healthy habits.

All programs are held in the Heritage Room, following worship and ending around 12:15pm. Grab a cup of coffee and a pastry and join us. Questions or suggestions for a program? Richard Scherrer at 90fivetpr@gmail.com

Ponder

We must be ready to allow ourselves to be interrupted by God. God will be constantly crossing our paths and cancelling our plans by sending us people with claims and petitions. We may pass them by, preoccupied with our more important tasks, as the priest passed by the man who had fallen among thieves, perhaps - reading the Bible… it is part of the discipline of humility that we must not spare our hand where it can perform a service and we do not assume that our schedule is our own to manage, but allow it to be arranged by God. ~Dietrich Bonhoeffer
